No New Tax—Just a Replacement!

Relief Sewer Levy Planned by Council

City legislators took another step toward meeting the pressing sewer problem Wednesday night as they gave informal approval to Manager James F. Parkinson's suggestion that a voted 2 mill street improvement levy which expires this year be replaced by a 2 - mill levy for construction of relief sewers.

Solicitor William M. Junk was asked to prepare legislation toward getting the sewer levy on the November ballot.

This measure, which would mean continuation of extra millage now paid by city residents rather than an additional tax burden, will receive formal attention along with a proposal to extend two-tenths of a mill levy to meet the city's share of increased costs for operation of Washington Cemetery, at a special meeting of Council next Wednesday night.

Union Township and Washington Cemetery trustees will be asked to meet with Council at that time, since the solicitor pointed out that the two legislative authorities (city and township) must approve a tax rate for the cemetery which is operated jointly.

THE TOWNSHIP which already receives one-tenth of a mill from real estate taxes for cemetery use, is preparing to ask the County Budget Commission for an additional one-tenth. The city's share will have to come from a voted levy outside the 10-mill limitation since the municipality's present total allocation of 1.6 mills from general taxation is, Council feels, such a small amount that none of it can be spared for other than day-to-day operation of the city.

Bogus Bills Bring Arrest Of Canadians

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Two Canadians arrested on a suspicious persons charge Wednesday have been charged with possession of counterfeit money. In their car police found $4,760 in counterfeit 20-dollar bills.

The pair were identified as Anthony Iata, 37, and Matthew Joseph Campbell, 29, both of Toronto, Ont.

Police gave the following account:

Campbell attempted to pass a 20-dollar bill in a restaurant, but a waitress recognized it as counterfeit. She told Campbell the money was no good and he ran from the restaurant leaving the bogus bill behind.

Police Lt. Clyde W. Boso saw Campbell run from the restaurant and into a nearby bar. Moments later Campbell emerged from the bar with Iata and the two walked to their car. Boso arrested the men on a charge of suspicion.

4 Columbus Brig Escapees Nabbed

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Four sailors who escaped from confinement at the Columbus Naval Air Station Tuesday were captured Wednesday northeast of here.

The four, Edward Cain, 18, of Cambridge, Jerry Pyle, 19, of Chester, Pa., Robert Siedham, 18, of Big Stone Gap, Va., and Robert Muggart, 21, of Rt. 3, Galion, were charged with suspicion of house burglary and being fugitives of justice.

While the picture is clouded,

Parkinson said that it still may be possible to end the current year with a slight balance. This will depend on an improvement in collections from court sources, meter revenues and sales tax.

The 1958 balance as anticipated at this time, would be approximately $100.

THERE ARE NO provisions for annexation expenditures, utility

Police Hold 5 After Robbery, Purse Snatching

Empty Gun Ends Chase after Woman Is Knocked Down

Four men are in city jail in the aftermath of a night of violence which included a robbery, a purse-snatching incident that brought a chase ended by an unloaded revolver, and the breaking and entering of a vacationing dentist's home.

Preliminary investigation by city police disclosed that the total loot was only $17.00.

The four suspects are awaiting hearing in Municipal Court; two are charged with robbery, one with breaking and entering in the night season, and the fourth is charged with assault with intent to rob.

MICHAEL LEE RYAN, 18, Sacramento, Calif., is charged with assault with intent to rob a Columbus woman who is visiting here.

Mrs. Kathryn Jones, Columbus, said she was walking in front of the Holthouse Furniture Store, 120 W. Court St., early Wednesday evening when Ryan attempted to take her purse.

Police said he threw her down while she still held onto the purse.

She gained the attention of two youths driving by and Ryan fled from the scene. David Whiteside, 130 W. Oakland Ave., had his .22 caliber revolver in a holster lying on the car seat. He had been showing the gun to friends. David Barchet, 723 Washington Ave., was driving the car.

Whiteside said they were going west on Court St. when they saw a woman fall to the pavement and then saw a youth run down the alley near the J. Elmer White car lot. When the car approached the alley, Barchet leaped out and gave chase.

Whiteside said he remained at the wheel until he saw Ryan crossing Market St. going toward the Kroger parking lot. Ryan had lost both shoes and was stopped by Whiteside who brandished the empty gun.

Barchet who had been chasing Ryan, arrived on foot. They went to the home of Cecil White, an auxiliary state patrolman nearby, and called police.

TWO MEN who said they were airmen assigned at the Clinton County Air Force Base are in jail charged with the forced robbery of Vephraim Wiseman, Route 5. Wiseman told police he drove into a lot outside the Rocking Chair Inn, 428 Wilson St., about 9 p.m. Wednesday when he was pulled off his car by two men.

Wiseman told police the pair beat him up and took his wallet containing about seven dollars. Forty-five minutes later the two men came back to the inn when they were arrested by police who arrived after being called by Wiseman.

His right eye was swollen, with a cut under the left eye. He was a cut under the left eye. He was a

SEEK PARLEY RULES

U.S. Dislikes Idea of Start Next Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower began writing a new message to Premier Khrushchev today insisting that the ground rules be spelled out clearly in advance of a United Nations summit conference.

U.S. officials said it seems certain that the meeting will be held. But here, and in other Western capitals, the view was that the opening day suggested by Khrushchev, next Monday, is much too soon.

Diplomats estimated it would take two or three weeks of negotiations to determine exactly what countries should be included and what procedures should govern discussions.

Nothing quite like the proposed historic conference has ever been held at the U.N. Security Council in New York. Important precedents will be set.

Recognition of this was reflected in a stand by Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California that the free nations should not accept any Khrushchev conditions which weaken the U.N. Knowland told a news conference

What's This For?

THE MOST USELESS THING AT THE FAIRGROUND so far this week has been the truck normally used to sprinkle the track between races. There has been an ample supply of water coming from the skies. Truck drivers Dutch Southard, (left) and Don Sanders, both of Springfield, don't know whether to go home or stick around, in case the sprinkler may be needed.

Market Lambs Fair Feature

Fayette County's 1958 Fair was rapidly getting back to normal Thursday.

It was almost drowned Tuesday afternoon and had not recovered sufficiently Wednesday to hold the harness horse racing program in the afternoon, but by night the crowds were coming through the gates, despite the mud.

Cars had to be parked outside the Fairground Wednesday, but by Thursday much of the parking area was firm enough to permit parking of cars. Heavy trucks, however, were kept off of the sod as much as possible.

Cars had to be parked outside the Fairground Wednesday, but by Thursday much of the parking area was firm enough to permit parking of cars. Heavy trucks, however, were kept off of the sod as much as possible.

When the staff in the secretary's office finally found time to check the figures, it found that 339 had gone through the gates Tuesday night and 976 Wednesday afternoon, although there was no racing. This compares with 1,258 on Tuesday of last year and 1,448 on Wednesday afternoon a year ago.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, 2,278 disregarded the mud and parking inconveniences to go through the gate (there were 3,465 last year) and of these 1,376 went into the grandstand to see the Hell Drivers in their Auto Thrill Show. The Wednesday night show last year drew 1,821.

Record Price Paid

DAVID COOK, (right) son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, Danville Rd., sold his grand champion market lamb at the Fair last night for a record price of $1.32 per pound. Harold Westfall, sheep man for Producers Stockyards, represents the Producers employees who purchased the 80-pound lamb. David's animal won the grand championship in the 4-H Sheep Show yesterday afternoon. David is a member of the Blue Ribbon Champs and has had the grand champion lamb for the last four years.

Iraq Rebels Plan Parley with UAR

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A high official of Iraq's revolutionary regime said today his government is preparing negotiations for a union with President Nasser's United Arab Republic.

Iraqi Deputy Premier Abd Salam Aref told a Cairo newspaper Sabah El-Kheir he is looking forward to the day when all Arab countries will join.

The newspaper Al Ahram predicted a surge to Nasser's Arab nationalism also would wrench non-Arab but Moslem Pakistan from the Baghdad Pact. Iraq was the only Arab member of the anti-Communist Pact, which also embraces Turkey, Iran and Britain.

In Bonn, Iraqi Ambassador Ali Haider Sulaiman added his voice to the chorus of pro-Nasser friends for the West coming from Iraq's revolutionary regime.

Sulaiman told reporters Iraq "cannot do without the West, especially Europe" in building up its economy.

"From the beginning, the new regime has made it clear it has the friendliest feelings toward the West," Sulaiman said. "The new government will protect the production and supply of oil and will honor its obligations entered into with the oil companies."

Grand Champion Hog

DAVID MCKEE, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McKee, Route 2, New Holland, proudly shows the trophy and ribbon he won at the 4-H Swine Show yesterday. David, a member of the Marion Marvels, had the grand champion market hog and the reserve champion pen of three at the Fayette County Fair.

4 Texas Children Killed in Closet

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Two more children died Wednesday from being trapped in a stifling clothes closet, bringing the total deaths to four.

The children were trapped when the handle fell off the door of the closet in which they were playing. When the mother, Mrs. Cardie McDade, a Negro, returned home Tuesday she found the four children trapped in the closet. Debra Joyce Moore, 3, and Tommy Allen Carr, 4, children by former marriages, were dead.

Carolyn Moore, 2, and Clydie Moore, 6, were unconscious. They died in a Dallas hospital.

100 Cars Pulled From Mud at Fair Wednesday

More than 100 cars were pulled from the mud at the Fairground Wednesday night.

Driving the tractors pulling the cars as well as directing Fair traffic and policing the grounds were the 74 members of the Bloomingburg Lions Club.

Monday night before the Fair started all the members of the Lions club headed by Lawrence (Bucky) Dumford were sworn in as special deputies for Fair Week.

This is the eighth year the Bloomingburg Lions Club has handled parking, traffic and police duties on the Fairgrounds. All 74 members will work during the Fair to handle traffic and aid in such matters as pulling the cars that are stuck in the mud.

A spokesman for the club said no arrests had been made during the first two days of the Fair. He said the crowds have been very co-operative, and the people have appreciated the problems the weather has presented.

SHERIFF Orland Hays has given the special deputies the same powers his regular force has.

Traffic Wednesday night lined Fairview and Leesburg Aves. and several other streets. The Fairground was closed to traffic about 7 p. m. with every effort made to use all the solid ground inside for parking.

Tractors furnished by the Fair Board were used by the Lions to pull the cars mired deep in the mud Wednesday night. The Lions were identified by the yellow straw hats or yellow caps with the Lion emblem.

Thursday, Sheriff Hays said he is clearing Midway area after it closes for the night. He said all youths 16 and under will have to go back where they are staying at the Fair, he said.

The Fairground is in the county and under the jurisdiction of the Sheriff's Department.

Seek Ground Rules

(Continued from page one) once he considered a fundamental issue to be whether the Soviet government, or any other country, can in effect unilaterally change the procedures of the U.N. by fiat of its own.

If this is permitted, he said, it will in effect have undermined and ultimately jeopardized the future existence of the organization.

Knowland's views are among a considerable flow of congressional opinion that the White House is receiving informally through liaison officers.

An idea put forward by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) is that Prime Minister Ben Gurion of Israel and representatives of the Arab states should be included in any summit conference on the Middle East.

"This conference offers the first opportunity we've had to do something constructive to work out a solution for the Arab-Israeli dispute which is the seed bed for problems in the Middle East," Humphrey told reporters today.

Humphrey had just come from a briefing given a group of senators by William Macomber, assistant secretary of state.

"Ben Gurion of Israel should by all means be invited to the conference," Humphrey asserted. "If Israel and the Arab states are included we would have an opportunity of clarifying relationships."

The relations between Israel and the Arab states are at the root of the problem, rather than the question of U.S.-Soviet relations about which we have talked so much."

Among conditions Khrushchev attached to a summit meeting were that Prime Minister Nehru of India and Arab leaders be invited.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles conferred by telephone early this morning on a reply to the Soviet Premier. The White House said they talked before a National Security Council meeting.

Summit questions presumably were discussed at the council meeting. After it was over, Dulles stayed on for a private talk with the President.

Eisenhower and Dulles, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty reported, were concerned with working out a reply to Khrushchev.

Hagerty held open the possibility that the message might be dispatched to Moscow today but said that was not certain by any means.

The belief was strong in diplomatic quarters here, however, that the obstacles will be overcome and the conference opened within two or three weeks.

The principal difficulties still in the way of arranging the proposed meeting, as defined by officials here, are these:

1. Khrushchev's acceptance mentioned specifically the attendance also of Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Macmillan, French Premier de Gaulle and Prime Minister Nehru of India.

But Paris dispatches said it was unlikely that De Gaulle would attend. While favoring a summit meeting in principle, he has publicly announced his opposition to such a meeting at the U.N. at John Brubaker won first place and an A grade in the 4-H conservation exhibits. They were judged by a committee of the Western powers envisioned — that is, an extraordinary session of Security Council members.

In his letter to Eisenhower Khrushchev renewed his charge that the Western powers have committed aggression in the Middle East. Eisenhower previously had rejected the accusation, and it seemed clear he is determined not to go into the conference in the role of a defendant.

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union was on strike today against Timken Roller Bearing Co. following failure to reach agreement after seven weeks of bargaining on pension plan improvements.

About 9,000 workers in plants here and at Columbus, Zanesville and Wooster are affected.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House swiftly passed and sent to the Senate today a compromise defense reorganization bill containing most of the provisions requested by President Eisenhower.

The belief was strong in diplomatic quarters here, however, that the obstacles will be overcome and the conference opened within two or three weeks.

1938 Dollar's Worth Costs $2.05 Now, Study Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs have gone up 105 per cent in the 20 years since 1938, years that have included World War II and the Korean War.

That means that on the average, you must pay $2.05 today for something you could have bought for a dollar back in 1938.

The government released its latest living cost index Wednesday. It showed a fractional rise from May to June, less than one-tenth of 1 per cent. But it was a new living cost record, the 20th set in the past 22 months.

Government experts provided figures on request showing the story of those 20 years, broken down into 5-year stanzas.

Their data show that from 1938 to 1943 consumer costs rose 23 per cent; from 1943 to 1948, 39 per cent; from 1948 to 1953, 11 per cent; and from 1953 to 1958, with President Eisenhower in the White House, 8 per cent.

Hospital costs eclipsed almost everything else, rising nearly 300 per cent. Doctor fees increased 84 per cent, men's haircuts 206 per cent, gasoline 69 per cent, house-hold appliances 33 per cent, newspapers 124 per cent and movie-admissions 120 per cent.

For example, where the cost of gas and electricity rose only a little over 11 per cent, coal and fuel oil jumped 129 per cent.

In the 1938-58 span the cost of a new car rose 125 per cent, rent 60 per cent and food a whopping 151 per cent.

Hospital costs eclipsed almost everything else, rising nearly 300 per cent. Doctor fees increased 84 per cent, men's haircuts 206 per cent, gasoline 69 per cent, household appliances 33 per cent, newspapers 124 per cent and movie-admissions 120 per cent.

Oddly enough, costs of men's clothes in those two decades rose 110 per cent, but women's clothes climbed only 78 per cent.

Now turn to the past five years under Eisenhower, in which living costs have risen 8 per cent. This again is a composite of many different changes.

For food, in the 1953-58 period food has increased 7.8 per cent, housing 8.6, rents 11, gas-electricity 9.7, coal-fuel oil 6.3, and clothing 1.8 per cent. Hospital costs rose 33 per cent, hospitalization insurance the same, haircuts 23.1, movies 25 and newspapers 20.

But in the past five years there were substantial price declines, too. Appliances, probably due to price discounts, declined 15 per cent, including TV sets 6 per cent, radios 10 per cent, refrigerators 33 per cent and vacuum cleaners 23 per cent.

A pair of women's nylons now costs 13 per cent less than five years ago, men's pajamas 1 per cent less, bedsheets down 8.3 per cent, and used cars 12.6 per cent less.

So it goes in the mixed-up price world consumers face every day. The only consoling thought is that the government price experts say they expect some modest living cost decline in the next few months as cheaper summer food supplies reach market.

Our Ohio Election Laws Rank among Best

While there are times when some individuals criticize our methods of voting, even to the extent of asserting some elections have been "fixed" for some one's or some group's special benefit, our election laws and our election administration in Ohio are generally recognized by the public as being among the best in the nation.

We take the process of electing our officials and deciding issues by ballot more or less for granted. Only on very rare occasions do we hear of a general election being termed a "farce."

From the very start Ohio has had a secret ballot although history records a number of instances where there have been difficulties in keeping it so.

In recent years not only have model laws been enacted, but every effort has been made to eliminate laxity and fraud in the handling of public elections, and the general public has supported this system with confidence.

Many of Ohio's more populous counties have had voter registration for years and nearly every year has brought about the adoption of this procedure by more counties. Fayette, as yet, has not deemed it necessary to arrange for such registration on the theory that the county is so small and nearly every resident eligible to vote is known by elections officials of his particular ward or precinct, so that attempts at fraudulent voting seldom occur.

There are 22 counties in Ohio which have registration in all their precincts, and 17 others have registration in part. At the coming November election 18 Ohio counties will use voting machines.

While the adoption of registration and use of voting machines are matters purely for local decisions, election officials over the state say they have contributed much toward efficiency and in safeguarding against fraud.

Doubtless there will always be many individuals who are displeased with the results of some elections. But few ever have been able to charge that the method of voting or the manner in which candidates and issues are presented on the ballot is unfair, especially after numerous legislative changes in the past which sought to simplify the ballot and make sure of its secrecy.

Sad Fate of Mrs. Barnes

NEW YORK (AP)—It's a wise woman who avoids positive declarations and an all-or-nothing attitude.

The other day I overheard my young daughter, in a fit of pique, tell a small neighbor, "All right then, I won't be your friend—and I'll never play with you again."

Well, I had to laugh. It always makes me chuckle when I see a member of the feminine sex get up so high on a horse she doesn't know how to get down.

It reminds me of the sad fate of Mrs. Barnes.

The story begins about 40 years ago. Mrs. Barnes and her husband had eight children.

Barnes was a cheerful soul, just this side of shiflessness. His wife, who came from what she claimed was a better family, was prideful and ambitious. She was always after her husband to get a better job and make more money so they could live in a finer neighborhood. Morning and night she scolded him.

One night Barnes, who had stopped for a couple of beers on the way home, suddenly interrupted her in the middle of a long complaint:

"You got a mouth like a buzz saw. Don't you ever give it a rest?"

Startled, Mrs. Barnes glared at him. Her lips firmed in a thin line.

"Unless you apologize for that unkind remark, Mr. Barnes," she said sternly, "I'll never speak to you the rest of my life."

And Mrs. Barnes, hearing, would stab a needle viciously into her sewing. But pride held her helpless.

After 10 years Barnes caught pneumonia one winter's day. On his deathbed, surrounded by his 11 weeping offspring with his wife hovering in the background, Barnes reared up and said loud and clear:

"These are your pa's last words, young'uns. Tell your ma the last 10 years have been the happiest of my life, and I sure feel good to her."

Then he fell back on the bed and died, smiling.

Mrs. Barnes had the undertaker lay him out in the house. According to neighborhood gossip, she talked to him for three days and nights without stopping. But Barnes never heard a word and still had the smile on his face when they buried him.

Moral: It's terribly unsatisfactory to try to punish someone and then find out you've actually done him a favor.

The Debate Drones On and On

The world could go down to its final end while the Security Council of the United Nations debates on the virtues of this or that paragraph of the United Nations Charter.

It must be pleasant to belong to such a delightful debating society, in which men are most courteous when they spit into each other's eyes.

So Comrade Sobolev rises to make a prolonged speech which is translated into English and French. The afternoon has passed. American troops have landed in Turkey; British troops have landed in Jordan; Ben Gurion has had the Russian ambassador in.

But the United Nations translator drones his weary way. The English translator of Sobolev's speech much have gone to elocution school. He is very good at nuances, at little sarcasm.

He might be an actor. He is better than Sobolev who as an orator is very bad, indeed—nothing like Vyshinsky who when he cursed the United States really put his heart in it.

Ah! Dag, Hammarskjold, the secretary general of the United Nations, gets into the act. What he says is neither here nor there, because Soviet Russia sent her top air force general to plan a campaign with Nasser's top air force general.

Hammarskjold talks for the record. Someday a researcher will note that he had asserted the superiority of the United Nations over the United States. It may be so, but we are now moving troops and fleets and the fate of nations hangs in the balance.

So Sweden goes into a dither. Sweden can be occupied by Soviet Russia and the Swedes would prefer that nothing be done to irritate the Russians who would need only an hour or two to move into Sweden from Finland.

I once spent some time up around Haparanda and Tornio where Sweden and Finland are joined together. It is bleak country, up in the arctic. I would not take the Russians many hours to move troops by land as well as by airplanes into Sweden.

A woman seeking a divorce says she and her husband are victims of "nuclear tempo." Wonder which one got off the first blast.

A wealthy Englishman, denoted membership in a golf club, bought it and now threatens to refuse to renew its lease. What a revenge—he can declare the whole shooting match out of bounds!

Zadok Dumkopf is against the suggestion of a four-hour work day. Says it would cost him one of his two coffee breaks.

Nature it might seem, lost a bet by not developing an ant that also had an appetite for the litter left behind by picnickers.

should break out over Lebanon and Sweden will be occupied.

That is one of the cruel facts about wars; they do not remain within fixed margins. They spread. World War I started over the Balkans and spread to every ocean; World War II started over Poland which was soon forgotten as more significant targets were hit.

We are now in the foothills of World War II. The start is over Lebanon but only occurred when a Nasser-organized revolution hit Iraq. Also Turkey, Jordan and Israel are involved and Sweden and Japan are literally scared.

And so the debate drones on and on at the United Nations Security Council.

Will the agenda be adopted? And after that, will a resolution be adopted? And will the resolution be vetoed by either the United States or Soviet Russia?

What difference does it now really make? Hour after hour, I listen on the radio as millions of others do. Occasionally there is an amusing interlude as when an NBC commentator spoke about the CIA being headed by one, Allen Dulles.

Now, what does the word, one, mean at such a moment: Allen Dulles cannot be talked down or humiliated by a baritone; he heads our intelligence services and is trying to handle an extremely difficult task with an agency that cannot mature quickly.

If the CIS is in fine working condition in a generation it will be a success. It takes a long time to make a good spy.

Surplus Disposal Plan Is Extended

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House overrode administration objections yesterday and passed a bill extending for another year the farm surplus disposal program.

The measure now goes to conference with the Senate to compromise conflicts between the two branches.

Republican efforts to force a roll call were unsuccessful, and passage was by a 195-52 standing vote.

The bill provides for sale abroad of farm surpluses for foreign currencies, and authorized $1 billion dollars to carry out the program.

The Senate-passed bill calls for a two-year extension and an additional $3 billion dollars to carry it out.

Laff-A-Day

"I can't sleep!"

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

DON'T be an air conditioning hog.

With the warm summer weather at hand, many of you more fortunate persons who have equipped your homes or apartments with air conditioning units are rushing to the thermostat to bring the temperature down 30 or 40 degrees.

Think of Others

Before you make a refrigerator of your home, give a thought to the others who must share it with you. Don't make them shiver just so you can take full advantage of the air conditioner.

On real hot days, it might be a good idea to keep the temperature in your house about 10 degrees cooler than the weather outside. This is especially advisable if you plan to be in and out of the house frequently.

Squeeze Out Moisture

In many instances, merely squeezing the moisture out of the air will make a home or room comfortable even without any additional cooling.

There are a couple of other things to consider for efficient air conditioning: the number of people in the house, and their activities. If they move around frequently, the air may be chilled a little more than it would be if they were sleeping or just sitting and resting.

So don't cool the air just to suit yourself. Think of the others present who want to share the full benefits of air conditioning.

Don't, to coin a phrase, give them the cold shoulder.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

W. V.: Is there any danger from a blood transfusion?

Answer: Transfusions can cause serious illness if the blood is improperly matched. This rarely occurs, however, because of modern methods of typing and testing the blood.

As a general rule, I suggest

IN WASHINGTON there dwells an ambitious worker who has neither a first name nor a middle name: just Jones—plus initials R. B. The government took a dim view of this unusual nomenclature and entered his name officially as R (only) B (only) Jones. Sure enough, when RB's first pay check came rolling in, it was made out to Ronly Bony Jones!

Ole Ern Is Firm Believer In Relaxed School of TV

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tennessee Ernie Ford was asked if he planned any changes in his television show this fall. He didn't say yes or no or maybe. He said:

"No use digging bait when you got a boatload of fish."

That's a Fordism. Ernie's no simple yes or no man. When the occasion calls for it he comes out with a country-style metaphor to fit. And usually it fits very nicely.

Asked for a few typical Ford phrases he came up with a hefty list, some of Tennessee origin and others coined by Ernie. Here they are, mostly self-explanatory:

"I'm tired as a two-pound hen that's laid a three-pound egg."

"Thicker than fleas on wet dog."

"Colder than a beaver's belly."

"I handed you a bucket, you may as well milk."

"Nervous as a long-tailed cat in a roomful of rocking chairs."

"I feel like I rode hard and put away wet."

"She's built like a sackful of door knobs."

"Redder than a gander's feet in a huckleberry patch."

"Tossed me from the buggy before I was finished riding."

"It's as useful as a milking stool under a bull."

"It caused as much talk as a new rooster in the hen house."

Ford is doing very well in television and television is his mainstay. Unlike many other entertainers, he does not make movies or go out on night club dates, although he does appear at state and county fairs. His other entertainment activity is making records.

Ole Ern is a strong believer in the relaxed, comfortable school of television.

"Bringing a show into the home is altogether different from the theater or a night club," he commented. "I keep remembering that I am being watched in the living room, where people are relaxed—where Pop is in his shirt-sleeves, and where there is no baby sitter and they can change the channel at any moment."

Midway Memos

By RON COFFMAN

The Fayette County Fair swung into high gear Wednesday, with all of the exhibits and Midway attractions in full operation, and an evening grandstand show. The grounds were still wet, but thanks to the hundreds of tons of crushed stone spread by Fair officials, people can now walk around without sinking ankle-deep in mud at every step.

Everybody held his breath about 7:30 p. m. when a few drops of rain fell. But, fortunately, the clouds passed with little more than a clap of thunder.

Miss Pat McCoy, 12-year-old granddaughter of Fair Board President Ray Brandenburg, had a close brush with tragedy in the afternoon, when she caught the fingers of her left hand in a car door as it was closing. Luckily, Pat escaped with nothing more than some bruised finger-tips.

The annual judging of the Grange exhibits was held Wednesday afternoon, with only three of the Granges represented. The grading was based on Grange achievements throughout the year, with the possible perfect score being 100. Out of the three groups that entered this year's competition, the Forest Shade Grange received the highest mark of 95 and was awarded a prize of $65. The Marshall Grange was second with 93 and an award of $62.50, while the Good Hope entry placed third with 90 points and a prize of $60.

The rushing torrents of water which paralyzed traffic and forced some of the concessionaires and exhibitors to abandon their living quarters subsided considerably during the last 24 hours. Most of these people have returned to their homes on wheels.

A STANDING-ROOM only crowd in the grandstand last night got its money's worth of thrills and chills, as the Kochman Hell-Divers Show took over the race track for about two hours. The snow featured many of the dangerous stunts including an 80-foot leap through space by a stock pick-up and the deliberate crash of one ancient car into the side of another.

The audience showed its appreciation with several loud and long rounds of applause both during and after the performance. An opinion poll conducted at the conclusion of the show indicated that the crowd had been thoroughly entertained.

Thursday night's grandstand attraction is wild animal show consisting of some highly unusual beasts and fowl of all types. The performance starts at 8:15 p. m. and the ticket windows will open about 7:20.

Attendance at Wednesday's Fair was labeled "exceptionally good" by Secretary W. S. Fennig. With the parking areas still unusable, many Fairgoers parked blocks away. If the weather is favorable, this afternoon and evening may see an even bigger crowd of spectators converging on Fairground.

The Fair's first lost little child was safely returned to her parents last night, the Secretary's office reported, as 10-year-old Janie Meyers was found and taken home, sleepy-eyed, by her relatives.

'Businessmen's Chapel' Planned for New York

NEW YORK — In a whirlwind survey, 647 men and women in a 48-hour period this week canvassed a 20-block area in midtown Manhattan, found 834 executives and others in 513 businesses firms favored establishment of a "Business Chapel" near St. Patrick's Cathedral for weekday worship. The chapel will open late next fall.

Picnic Honors Mr. Williamson

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Anders entertained recently with a picnic in honor of Mrs. Anders' father, Mr. Albert Williamson, who was celebrating his 81st birthday.

Mrs. Harry Morris, another daughter of Mr. Williamson presented him a lovely birthday cake. He also received other gifts from the guests.

The picnic was enjoyed at noon and ice cream and cake were served in the evening.

Those attending the gala affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, Good Hope; Mrs. Harry Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williamson and son, Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Williamson and children, all of Washington, C. H.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pettit and children Sandra, Martha and Leona of Hillsboro; Miss Wilma Cox, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williamson and sons, Steven and Gary, of Leesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Reese Williamson and children, Helen, Barbara and Billy; Miss Shirley Williamson, Mrs. Richard Daley and children, Peggy, Nancy and Richard, and the two sons of the host and hostess, Stephen and Junior.

All were beautiful. What made Eurlyne the winner?

"It's the same as that indescribable something that makes a girl an actress—or doesn't make her an actress," said Vincent Trotta, head of the nine-judge panel. "This girl has that special sparkle."

Eurlyne comes from Bossier City in northern Louisiana. Her father Ernest is a retired oil well driller. She is a sophomore at Centenary College, Shreveport, La., where she is studying speech and dramatics.

She says he has no particular romantic interest and her turned down four proposals of marriage so far.

International competition begins tonight, when the 34 foreign entries—plus Miss Howell—will be cut down to 15 semifinalists.

Miss Universe will be selected Friday night.

Miss U. S. Is Sparkling Dixie Beauty

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Miss Louisiana, a slender blonde with that special sparkle, is the new Miss United States in 1958's Miss Universe contest.

Eurlyne Howell, 18, has the quality the beauty pageant's top judge described this way:

"You fall in love with her as soon as you see her."

Eurlyne has a dazzling smile, blue eyes and long, honey blonde hair. She speaks with a soft Dixie drawl and fits her self-description "A Southern lady."

She is 5 feet 6, weighs 119 and measures 36-23½-33½. These charms helped her Wednesday night in winning over a field of four other blondes, three of them also representing Southern states.

The runners-up, in order, were Miss Florida, Marcia Valibus, 20, Miami Beach; Miss Alabama, Judith Lucille Carlson, 18, Birmingham; Miss Illinois, June Pickney, 22, Chicago; and Miss Georgia, Diane Gail Austin, 18, Atlanta.

Illuminating Business But It Has Problems

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UPI) — Constable George Tinsley has a sideline—a restaurant known as the Spotlite Cafe. It has succeeded in keeping the spotlit in the spotlight.

Champaign police filed the sixth charge against him in a month, claiming he had no city restaurant license for his cafe.

Police Magistrate Virgil W. Burgess also issued a warrant for the arrest of Theodore Briggs, charging him with operating a dance hall in the back room of the Spotlite without a dance hall license.

The audience showed its appreciation with several loud and long rounds of applause both during and after the performance. An opinion poll conducted at the conclusion of the show indicated that the crowd had been thoroughly entertained.

Thursday night's grandstand attraction is wild animal show consisting of some highly unusual beasts and fowl of all types. The performance starts at 8:15 p. m. and the ticket windows will open about 7:20.

Attendance at Wednesday's Fair was labeled "exceptionally good" by Secretary W. S. Fennig. With the parking areas still unusable, many Fairgoers parked blocks away. If the weather is favorable, this afternoon and evening may see an even bigger crowd of spectators converging on Fairground.

The Fair's first lost little child was safely returned to her parents last night, the Secretary's office reported, as 10-year-old Janie Meyers was found and taken home, sleepy-eyed, by her relatives.

A STANDING-ROOM only crowd in the grandstand last night got its money's worth of thrills and chills, as the Kochman Hell-Divers Show took over the race track for about two hours. The show featured many of the dangerous stunts including an 80-foot leap through space by a stock pick-up and the deliberate crash of one ancient car into the side of another.

Fashions Demand Leg Appeal

By DOROTHY ROE
Assoc. Press Women's Editor
Glamour emphasis shifts from the bosom to the legs, as previews of fall fashions show knee-length skirts designed for maximum leg exposure.

Girls who have grown up in the era of the sweater-girl ideal must take a new posture this fall, if they are to strike the mood of the new styles. Busts are not flattened, as in the dear departed Flapper Era, but are rather de-emphasized. It's a matter of stance.

Models this year adopt the casual slouch, with hips forward and chest deflated. And all are giving more attention to their legs, using makeup and the sheerest possible stockings to glamorize them. And for the girl with knobby knees, this year's styles are, to say the least, unfortunate.

Although the word "chemise" has disappeared from the fashion vocabulary for fall, the unfitted silhouette is still with us, in many versions. Most important is the high-waisted Empire line, also called Directoire and Josephine.

This is interpreted in various ways, from the senco tube dress with band, belt or bow just below the bust, to graceful flowing silhouettes with high-placed sashes or drawstrings.

THE TRAPEZE also is present in the fall fashion parade, seen in dresses, coats and suits, the line flaring smoothly from shoulder to hemline.

New fall suits show short, unfitted jackets sometimes ending above the waist, never longer than the hipbone. The exception is the new "walking suit" which has a bulky three-quarter length coat worn with a slender skirt and coordinated overblouse. In most cases suit skirts are attached to a bodice, to give the important high-waisted, loose-fitting line.

Early showings indicate that the worst of the baggy sack dresses have disappeared, with the relaxed silhouette modified and adapted to more wearable lines. Most designers show at least half a dozen different silhouettes, so that women may choose between the Empire line, the bloused shape, the long-torso effect, the slender, unfitted tube, the balloon, glove or harem skirt.

THE NEW clothes are shown with fur hats or softly crushed velvets, lots of costume jewelry, sparks the simplicity of line, and the long, narrow fur boa is with us once more, replacing the little mink stole in the ratings of high fashion.

Fabrics are handsome and unusual for fall, with color running riot over the fashion front and many new textures and finishes in evidence.

Most prominent in all collections is a new looped mohair, which looks bulky but is as light as whipped cream, used in coats and bulky jacket costumes. Many printed wools and wool brocades also are in evidence, together with silks in all weaves and synthetic fabrics with new talents in the wash-and-wear division.

It's a season in which there should be something for everybody, and in which a woman can go shopping for a new dress without being afraid to face her husband when she returns.

1,200 Greeks Held on Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—British Gov. Sir Hugh Foot announced today that more than 1,200 Greek Cypriots have been arrested since Monday in an attempt to prevent communal bloodshed on Cyprus from developing into full-scale civil war.

Foot said the sweep, which is still going on in scattered parts of the British island colony, was ordered after secret information was received that EOKA, the Greek-Cypriot underground, had ordered its members to step up attacks on Turkish Cypriots and increase sabotage and attacks on British security forces.

The communal violence began June 7. Twenty persons were killed last week and five more Monday.

Select Patio Furniture With an Eye for Harmony

STACK AWAY TABLE: The metal table is an example of what the wise shopper looks for when buying patio furniture. The chrome tripod legs fold up for easy winter storage while the bucket-center top may be used as a tray.

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Some of the fun in outdoor living is the setting we provide for our patio enjoyment. A few colorful cushions, rustic and rugged furniture, lounges and hammocks can contribute to our comfort.

Some of us manage to clutter up the outdoors, however, by snatching up a willy-nilly assortment of furniture at summer sales.

While the summer sale offers great possibilities for adding to patio, terrace or backyard living, we should give some thought to our selections. It's just as important to keep outdoor furniture compatible as it is to keep indoor furniture in harmony.

ASK YOURSELF these questions, for instance, when buying your next chaise or table:

(1) Will it stack easily for winter storage? (2) Can it be moved indoors, perhaps on the porch? (3) Do we have room in the attic, basement or barn for items that will not stack?

These considerations are just as important as the type of furniture and the colors you use because if the furniture must be left out to get water logged, you've made a poor investment.

There was dead silence in the Budapest factory hall, the Vienna Catholic news agency Kathpress reported today.

Hungarians Given Reading from Bible

VIENNA (AP)—Ordered by Hungary's Communist government to speak to factory workers about the "peace campaign of the Socialist camp," famous Hungarian composer Zoltan Kodaly read from a Bible instead.

Kodaly finished the reading un molested and walked out.

Purses Really Safe
STURGIS, Mich. (AP)—A number of women attending a rummage sale put their purses into an empty safe for safekeeping. Someone slammed the safe door shut. No one can open the safe.

MEASURE areas where you plan to put tables. If the dining area is out in the sun, a big white metal table with parasol may be better than a redwood sawbuck table.

If there are small children in the family, though, wood is a good investment because it can be whitened and hammered, smeared with paint, and may even be enhanced in a rustic sense as a result. Wood may be rained on, too, without too much damage.

Keeping in mind storage possibilities, chairs that stack easily are better bets perhaps than those that take a good deal of space.

Newer metal tables have that advantage also. Small, end-table type tables have round tray-like tops with a hole in the center for ice, punch bowls and what have you. These revolving tops slip on neat fold-away chrome tripod stands.

When choosing a chaise lounge for the outdoors, consider the mattress. It's a good idea to get one that can weather rain, but will not lose buoyancy during the long winter.

Children Need Food Even in Hot Weather

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Assoc. Press Food Editor

Hot weather may lessen children's appetites, but it does not affect their food needs. If you want youngsters to be at their best during the summer, check up on menus.

Milk comes first. Even though small fry — like grownups — enjoy a variety of cold drinks on sunny days, they still need three to four 8-ounce cups of this beverage. It furnishes protein for building muscles and body tissues, calcium and phosphorus for bones and teeth. Its vitamins are important for all-round health and growth.

If your youngsters drink their milk "as is," fine. If not, use it in milk shakes in combination with fruit. Range-top or baked custards made with milk are delightful on dog days because they're chilled; small fry usually enjoy them garnished with berries, sliced peaches or other fresh fruit.

Count on cheese and ice cream when you're thinking of replacing milk. A 1-inch cube of cheddar-type cheese offers the calcium equivalent of 2-3 cup of milk;  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of cottage cheese that of 1-3 cup of milk; and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of ice cream that of  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup of milk. Keep this comparison in mind when planning meals and snacks.

Shareholders will be asked at a special meeting Sept. 9 to approve an increase in authorized stock from one to five million common shares and a change in par value from $10 to $15.

Addressograph Co. Plans Stock Split

CLEVELAND (AP) — Directors of Addressograph-Multigraph Corp. have voted to recommend to stockholders a 3 for 1 split of common stock.

Worldwide sales in the last fiscal year set a high of 115 million dollars. A total of 919,751 common shares were outstanding at the end of the last fiscal year.

MARK IT

Write the owner's name with a black crayon on the inside of a pocket of blue jeans and press over it with a hot iron. These markings stand many washings and save lots of confusion if there are several youngsters in the family.

By F. E. KELLEY

Out of the years gone by comes information of another private race course in Fayette County—and a little later I will tell you about still another one.

Already I have mentioned in this column the Charles Camp bell track at the intersection of the Devaion and Lewis Roads, and the David Horney track immediately north of Jeffersonville.

The third track was one where running horses were trained along with harness horses, and the track was famous in its day.

It was owned by Abel H. Jones, grandfather of Carl Jones, who lives on the Allen Rd., a short distance north of Octa.

Abel H. Jones died half a century ago. His large house, part frame and part log, (with the log part weather boarded over some 75 years ago) is still standing, but it has been vacant for many years. He was one of the county's most prominent horsemen of his day.

His specialty was running horses, and he had one, "Pocahontas," which became quite famous.

The old race course, no trace of which now exists, was in a field northeast of the former James homestead and was the center of a great deal of activity among horsemen.

I understand there were many races run on the track, which ostensibly was a training course, and that some of the best runners of that area took part in these private contests.

HELD 'EM CLOSE

Recently I talked with several persons who attended the Fayette County Fair many years ago when they were small children. Two or three of them recall that their arms and shoulders were sore for a week afterward because their parents did not want them to get lost and held by the hand constantly.

The fear of becoming lost from parents, and the fear of parents of losing their small children, was ever a specter at the county fair, for if the children got lost, the parents feared they never would see them again. And the bashful children, who rarely got a chance to mingle with crowds, had a horror of getting separated from their parents and feared that they might never see THEM again.

However there is little such worry nowadays, for lost children are taken in charge and within a few minutes the public address system tells the wandering parents where to go to get possession of their young ones.

The kids rarely think of getting lost, for they are nearly all used to mingling with crowds.

HORNEY PICNIC GROUNDS

Some of the old timers who lived in Jeffersonville and vicinity more than a half century ago, not only recall the David Horney race track which was located on the Horney farm immediately north of Jeffersonville but also remember the community gatherings on the farm for the Fourth of July and other celebrations.

For years the Horney family and friends, as well as people generally throughout the area assembled at the race track and under the trees adjacent to the track. There they enjoyed spirited racing between horses owned in the immediate neighborhood.

There used to be some hot races on the half-mile private oval on the Horney farm and I am told that one of these horse fanciers was James Rose Conner of whom I have written in this column recently. His horses always gave a good account of themselves.

Those gatherings were notable occasions and were attended by large crowds. These folks not only enjoyed the racing, pitching horseshoes, ball games, and other sports but they always took a superabundance of good food and not only had a picnic dinner but enough left for a picnic supper.

I am also informed that there was singing and instrumental music which added to the enjoyment of these notable gatherings in Jefferson Township.

SICKLES CAME FIRST

At the present time, when it is possible to combine a sizeable field of wheat in a day, we naturally think of the days when wheat harvest was a slow back breaking task. All wheat, then was cut with sickles made by hand.

These sickles, simply curved pieces of steel sharpened and the tang or shank fitted with wooden handles date back thousands of years.

Originally the sickle blades most of which are 16 to 20 inches long, not over an inch across and rather thin were notched or equipped with sharp sloping teeth. Later the cutting edge had neither notches nor teeth.

They were used in cutting all grains as well as grass for hay.

I have several of these old sickles, including two made for left handed users, as indicated by the slope of the blades of the sickles and I handed users, as indicated by the plan to give them to the Fayette County Historical Society as relics of a bygone age.

Following the hand sickles came the scythe, then the cradle with its long blade and wooden fingers as long as the blade, which formed a cradle. This caught the grain as it fell and it could be dropped in bunches.

Then came the mechanical mowing equipment and this was a big help. After that the grain was cut, then on a platform and was raked off by hand.

Then came the "dropper" which swept the grain into piles ready to be bound by hand.

Of course the "self binder" then entered the field and after a great many years was supplanted by the present combines.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Veterans

Administration blind center at Hines, Ill., has just celebrated a decade of teaching men to do things they've done all their lives.

All feared that blindness had ended not only their careers but almost everything else that had been wonderfully routine in their lives.

Williams recalled, "We first introduced them, as we do all our patients, to the long white cane.

"Then we made them mobile again, both inside and outdoors. We taught them how to eat and make their own beds."

They learned to negotiate the hospital corridors and grounds, nearby streets, and eventually

Chicago's busy Loop.

Finally, they returned to their law, ministry and chicken farming.

Williams measures the center's success by small yardsticks—a blind veteran's ability to change a flat tire and carry a pail of ashes from the basement to the alley.

When someone with no vocational training comes to the center, there are instructors and facilities for starting him toward the use of shop tools so that he can lead an independent life.

Williams lives the objectives of independence which he teaches, having recently returned from two weeks of camping out with his family in the Rocky Mountains.

Boy Thieves Admit Exciting Afternoon

Then Patrolman Ben Way arrested them and asked if they knew what had happened to the piggy bank containing $60 missing from the nearby apartment of Mrs. Josephine Winslow.

The boys admitted taking the money and told of buying hamburgers, malted milks, flashlights and knives and a chihuahua.

"I've always wanted chihuahua," one said. "He cost $45."

The dog will go back to the pet shop.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two Cincinnati men have the next five years to pay back about $250,000

they swindled from a finance company.

Judge Louis J. Schneider set probation Tuesday for Joseph De-

Philip, 51, owner of a television

Lack of Panic Buying Seen Aiding Economy

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Consumers who failed to be panicked by the sharp drop in industrial activity since last summer are halting the slump and laying solid ground for a new rise.

They also seem to be taking the Middle East crisis in stride. After years of one crisis after another, the public apparently is growing blasé and doesn't react the way it once did.

Rising government spending is also helping turn the economy up again—if only slightly.

And businessmen seem to be regaining their confidence, talking more convincingly about a fall upturn and in some cases increasing their orders for materials or semi-finished goods.

These deduction came from a report of the President's economic advisers on the indicators sighted in the April-May-June quarter, with the month of June turning in the most convincing figures.

In the second quarter spending for goods and services reversed a nine-month downward trend. It rose by 24 billion dollars to reach an estimated annual rate of 428 billion.

Although this is well below the peak of 445 billion reached last summer, the upturn has significance because all but 400 million of the second quarter gain is credited to increased personal spending. Increased government spending is just getting under way.

The consumer, however, is taking most of the bows. He switched his affections from big ticket durable goods to soft goods and services.

Higher this week were barley, bellies, eggs, raisins and prunes.

Lower were flour, wheat, rye, oats, beef, hams, lard, sugar, tea, cocoa, steers and hogs.

were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan and sons.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

ices. He even saved a larger percentage of his income — although this trend also is being reversed.

But the consumer didn't panic. He bought what he needed. He responded quickly to bargains. And much of the success of the hoopla campaigns put on during the dark days of the recession—January-February and March—generally is credited to the fact that real bargains were promoted.

Family budgets may have been watched a little closer. But consumers for the most part regulated themselves reasonably — and without government controls.

So, if after the summer lull, the economy is found healthy and on a moderate upturn this fall, much of the credit must go to the public that didn't lose its head.

Jobless Pay Claims Show Decrease Here

New claims for unemployment compensation appear to be on the downward trend, figures released by the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation show.

New claims for Fayette County are down again after a sudden rise during the week ending July 12. Continued claims, however, have been steadily rising since dropping a low of only 200 during the week ending July 5, according to Mrs. Matilda Jo Smith, manager of the Washington C. H. branch of the Ohio State Employment Service.

Ten new claims were filed during the week ending July 19 and 240 claims were continued.

Continued claims are claims filed by unemployed persons for one week or more.

The 10 filed last week was a drop from the 16 filed the previous week.

Starting with the week ending June 14, when 10 claims were filed, new claims steadily dropped during the next three weeks until the 16 claims were filed the week of July 12, she said.

During the week ending July 5, only 200 claims were continued. This was the lowest point in two months. The continued claims have steadily risen since then.

Eighty-four claims were filed last week for the extended unemployment compensation. These included those by ex-servicemen, who entered the service after Feb. 1, 1955. These claims were allowed under the emergency legislation passed by the Ohio Legislature on June 24. The bill extends payments for 13 weeks beyond the prior 26-week limit. For entire state 16,584 claims were filed for the new compensation under the emergency legislation, state figures show.

A TOTAL OF 19,602 new claims were filed in the entire state for unemployment compensation for the week ending July 19. This is a drop for the second week in a row, after reaching 21,386 claims for the week ending July 5. A total of 171,959 continued claims were filed last week.

The office here, which handles both Clinton and Fayette Counties, received a total of 47 new claims last week. Continued claims totaled 500.

Figures for the same period in 1957 showed 21 new claims filed with the office here in July. Only 182 claims were carried over.

Local Gas, Auto Tax Allocations Reported

Fayette County, Washington C. H. and the townships received $286,335.36 from motor vehicle license fees and $333,969.50 from gasoline tax from the state during the fiscal year ending June 30.

The state collected $108,119,276 from gasoline taxes and motor vehicle license fees, according to James A. Rhodes, state auditor. This will be used for the maintenance and improvement of highways and streets in counties, municipalities and townships. This is the largest amount ever paid in one year from these state-collected funds, Rhodes said.

It exceeds by more than 6 million dollars the amount received by local governments during the previous year. Each county, regardless of its size, received $210,000 during the fiscal year from the gasoline tax for county highways, and each township received $7,600.

Rhodes said the amount which local governments received from these two sources last year is more than the total receipts of state government 25 years ago.

SINCE the county operates on a calendar year, Auditor Harry Allen had the figures Fayette County received for the year ending Dec. 31, 1957. They were $210,000 from gasoline tax, and $211,397.82 from the motor vehicle license fee. He said the townships in the county each received $7,600 from the gasoline tax.

COMMON PLEAS COURT

Suspect Drivers Face Possibility Of Reexamination

Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice has been using an Ohio law that empowers judges to recommend that unqualified drivers take their operator's license examination.

The judges of Ohio's municipal court were recently reminded in a letter from George C. Braden, registrar of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, — to send serious traffic violators to his office.

Judge Dice said he recently sent a driver to the bureau. During the past few months he has recommended that several drivers appearing before him retake their driving test. The judge sends the recommendation to the BMV in Columbus, which in turn, has the offender take a driver's test from the local examiner.

Braden's letter points out to judges that Ohio law (Sec. 4507.20 ORC) permits the registrar of motor vehicles, "having good cause to believe a driver is incompetent or otherwise not qualified to be licensed," may require him to submit to an examination.

Braden told the judges that he would consider notification from them "good cause" and immediately order the driver examined.

An incompetent driver is a person who apparently is incapable of handling a car either because of age, physical defects, ignorance of laws, repeated violations or simply lack of skill, Judge Dice explained.

Sweden, alarmed by the shortage of physicians in that country, is inviting doctors of other countries to practice there.

Pal Joey Jay Puts Braves Back In NL 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pal Joey Jay has won another big one for Milwaukee, this time with a two-hitter that hoisted the Braves back into the National League lead.

Young Joey Jay blanked St. Louis 6-0 on a pair of singles Wednesday night as the champs moved a full game ahead of San Francisco.

The Giants, after winning six in a row, slipped to second with 3-2 and 2-0 defeats at Philadelphia. The first was a completion of a June 22 suspended game and marked Eddie Sawyer's return as manager of the Phils, who moved from sixth to within .001 of fourth-place St. Louis.

Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-5 in 10 innings and Pittsburgh plunked Los Angeles back into the cellar with an 11-3 and 6-3 twi-night sweep.

Jay, 22, has won five in a row for a 6-3 record.

The Phils trailed 1-0 with two on and two out in the sixth when the June 22 curfew sounded. Wednesday night, lefty Harry Anderson tagged a three-run homer off southpaw Johnny Antonelli when play resumed. That beat Ruben Gomez, the starter back in June, and gave Robin Roberts a 9-9 record although the Phils managed just three hits.

The Giants' streak officially ended in the regulation game. Rookie Ray Sempach won his 12th with a five-hitter for his second shutout, both over the Giants.

Frank Robinson drove in four runs for the Reds, two with a double that capped a four-run fifth and the other pair with his winning, 13th homer off reliever Don Elston (7-6). Hal Jeffcoat (5-6) won it in relief, after giving up

Rademacher Bout Booked on TV

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The nation's boxing fans get their first view of Pete Rademacher, ex-ruler of the world amateur heavyweights, on television Friday night.

Big Pete created a sensation last year when, in his first match as a professional, he landed and lost a title battle with champion Floyd Patterson.

He was almost as choosey in opponents for his second fight as a pro. He meets Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., who shares with Eddie Machen the role of No. 1 challenger for Patterson's crown.

The encounter, billed for 10 rounds, goes on at 7 p.m., Pacific Daylight time. It will be televised by the National Broadcasting Co. with Southern California blacked out.

Leaders To Vie In Eastern Open

BALTIMORE (AP)—Rain-toughened Mount Pleasant gets an early test in the opening round of the $20,000 Eastern Open today with some of golf's brightest stars among the first players scheduled to tee off.

The early birdie-seekers included Dow Finsterwald, newly-crowned champion of the Professional Golfers Assn.; former National Open king Dick Mayer, and long-hitting George Bayer.

Nineteen of the sport's top cash winners this year were in the field of 129 tournament-hardened pros gunning for the $2,800 first place pot. Also competing were 34 amateurs.

Brown Wins Title Bout, Plans Rest

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Boxing's thin man, miniature dark destroyer Joe Brown, is going to get a good rest, a reward for being one of the busiest champions in the game today.

Little Joe beat Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., the last persistent challenger for his world's lightweight title, Wednesday night before the largest crowd in Texas boxing history—10,994.

Lou Viscusi, Brown's manager observed: "He is the only champion to defend his title three times in eight months. He deserves a rest. I have no plans for him at this time. I am now concentrating on the Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris fight."

Viscusi also manages Harris. Brown was a unanimous winner but close decision over Lane, the rugged farm boy from Michigan, who had some bright moments in his efforts to become the first left-hand lightweight champion.

Lane claimed he thought he had just a lead that he coasted the last round. But it was the last round that Brown won the widest margin—and that apparently was what cinched the fight to Brown.

It was a steady, hard-socking bout that saw Brown do the most physical damage but never able to land the kind of blow that had sent four previous challengers packing since he became champion in August 1956.

Each entered the fight weighing 134½ pounds.

Robinson Hits Bring Victory For Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Frank Robinson, the young Redleg left fielder, has had his share of hitting woes this season but he's been showing some improvement of late. Wednesday night he produced a pair of two-run hits that helped Cincinnati to a 6-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs in 10 innings.

His last blow was a home run in the last of the 10th after the Cubs had taken a 5-4 lead in their ninth on a home run by Bob Thomson. Prior to that, in the fifth inning, a double by Robinson had driven in two runs and a home run by George Crowe had driven home the eighth.

The Orioles, within 2½ games of second, had only four hits for eight innings, then beat Early Wynn (9-10) with four runs in the ninth at Chicago. Joe Ginsberg, who earlier counted two runs with his first homer, singled home the first run of the rally. Jack Harshman's pinch single tied it and Bob Boyd's two-run double won it for reliever George Zuverink (2-1).

Russ Nixon drove in three runs for the Indians with a homer and a two-run double that capped a three-run, come-from-behind seventh inning.

Tribe Pleased By Showing Of Pitchers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians now have had six complete pitching jobs in the last seven games. They have only managed four victories in that span, however.

The best news on the pitching front for Manager Joe Gordon is the apparent return of Jim (Mudcat) Grant to his early season form.

The rookie right-hander, who hadn't won a game in more than a month and lost five during that stretch, returned to the win column Wednesday night with a neat five-hitter that beat Washington's Senators 5-3.

Catcher Russ Nixon and outfielder Gary Geiger joined the "hero" listing along with Grant as the Indians took their second straight decision from Washington.

Nixon drove in three runs with a homer and a double. The two-base hit knocked in two runs in the seventh inning and broke a 3-3 tie. Geiger had evened the count the same inning with his first major league homer, a shot over the right field fence.

The younger centerfielder showed no ill effects from his beaning Tuesday night as he patrolled the outer garden brilliantly. He made at least two great catches and started a double play in the first inning after a fine catch on a fly by Albie Pearson. He robbed Pearson again in the eighth with a diving grab.

Route 62 Assn. Board Meets

Major Improvements Slated for Route 62 Next Year at Leesburg

A major construction project is scheduled for Route 62 near Leesburg next year. Paul Miller of Chillicothe, engineer for division 9 of the state Highway Department told the officers and directors of the new Route 62 Assn at their first official meeting Wednesday night in the Hotel Washington banquet room.

The project, Miller said will include relocation of the highway to eliminate the sharp curves at the two bridges just north of Leesburg and a by-pass around the village itself.

He said the engineering plans are not yet in sufficient detail to tell just where the straightened highway will go near the bridges or whether the Leesburg by-pass will be east or west of the village.

He also said that surveys have been started to combine Route 62 and Route 68 (south from Wilmington) farther north of Ripley, where they now converge.

THE OVERALL planning for Route 62, Miller said, also includes a new bridge over the Ohio River at Ripley which would carry traffic of both Route 62 and Route 68. However, he added, this will involve co-operation of the Ohio and Kentucky Highway Departments and, for this reason, this phase of the program is expected to progress more slowly than the developments planned for the highway in Ohio.

Miller was asked to give some of the background and plans for development of Route 62 because two counties through which it passes, Brown and Highland, are in division 9.

The Route 62 Assn. was formerly organized just a week ago for the purpose of focusing attention of state and federal highway officials on the highway which runs from Niagara Falls, N. Y., to El Paso, Tex.

Miller said some resurfacing was planned for the highway south of Hillsboro this year, but that no major construction on this section is contemplated now.

Richard R. Willis Jr., association president, conducted the business meeting of the board following Miller's talk.

Elmer Barrett of Barrett and Associates of Chillicothe, a highway planning firm, which made the surveys for the Conneaut-Cincinnati freeway, attended the business meeting and also gave the board some suggestions for getting Route 62 developed before highway officials.

Willis and John E. Aills, association secretary, were delegated to draft a letter outlining the association's plans to be sent to engineers in division 6 and division 9, with a copy to be sent to the

New Regime Curbing Communist Activities

By TALBOT PATRICK
BAGHDAD (AP) — Iraq's new revolutionary government, by actions even more convincingly than by words, has shown that it is not pro-Communist.

The first day of the revolt, Iraqi newspapermen told me repeatedly later, Communist leaders proposed to the army officers leading the rebellion that a National Guard or militia be formed to help in possible defense of the new government. The proposal, I was told, was turned down flat.

During the first two days of the revolution, Communist and anti-Western slogans were painted on many walls and houses. Signs were put on the front of British-owned stores and firms: "Don't buy from foreigners."

By the third day the army officers who led the revolution were bringing into the government, as Cabinet ministers and in other important positions, mature men of known ability and recognized position. Most of them had records of opposition to the former regime.

Then the army issued an order that anybody caught painting up Communist slogans would be court-martialed. Under army directions, the red paint of the Communist slogans was blanketed out with green paint.

Censors in newspaper offices blanked out from the reports and editorials they read all pejorative and phrases of the Communist line, according to Iraqi newspaper acquaintances.

Although there now is the censorship of newspapers, local newspapermen look forward to a time when the new government feels more safely established. They hope then for more freedom than under the royal regime.

Iraqis who were interested and sympathetic observers of the new revolutionary government said the new regime definitely does not intend that Iraq become a part of the United Arab Republic of Egypt and Syria.

There is a strong conviction that eventually there will be a single Arab nation, but not one dominated by Egypt, as the U.A.R. is.

city $3,400 as its share of the cost of a $10,000 cemetery land acquisition, and the city manager has recommended that this money be applied to the price of the new pumper.

But at the same time the city is obligated to foot approximately $7,000 of the bill for proposed cemeteries improvements. Where this money will be found has not yet been decided.

Councilman Walter Morrow observed that the overall financial picture will require careful study. "If we can't meet the city's minimum needs from present income and if we must increase salaries, it will become necessary to take the problem to the people in the form of an additional operating levy," Morrow said.

He indicated that he hopes an improved revenue picture and all possible economies will make that unnecessary.

ANYONE FOR WADING?—Cousins Bobby Wright, 13, (left) son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, and Dickie Wright, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, both of Route 1, Jeffersonville, checked their gum boots at the Fair yesterday. It seems the midway didn't have enough for the boys as they were caught wading in the ditch that runs through the Fairground. The ditch was overflowing from the rains. The situation was improved today.

Sewer Levy Sought

(Continued from page One) of the past few weeks have graphically pointed up the inadequacies of the city's antiquated "combination" sewer system, and a half-million-dollar treatment plant expansion program for which Council has asked a $150,000 federal aid grant will provide only partial relief.

A $10,000 sewer cleaning program which is set up in the tentative 1959 budget will help alleviate the overload. Repair work on interceptor sewers planned yet this year won't help the overload but is a requirement before a federal grant will be completed this year.

Rape Case Defendant Takes Stand

The case of the State of Ohio vs Joseph Earl Gardner, 425 Forest St., indicted for rape of his 10-year-old stepdaughter, was expected to go to a jury of eight women and four men sometime Thursday afternoon.

County Prosecutor Rollo M. Merchant rested Thursday morning after the jury had heard a parade of witnesses including Mrs. Louella Gardner, estranged wife of the defendant and mother of the girl; relatives, friends and two physicians who examined the victim.

The chief prosecution witness — the little girl, herself — was on the stand Wednesday afternoon.

The 27-year-old defendant, who has been under $50,000 bond, was called to testify by his counsel after the state rested and was still on the stand shortly before the noon recess.

Judge John P. Case is presiding over the trial.

Girl 4-H Winner At Home III When Awards Presented

Karen Carter, 10, has been looking forward to Fair week all year but she won't be able to attend it. Karen is in 4-H activities for the first time and Wednesday night would have been a big one for her. Her 4-H projects, a tea towel, pin cushion and pot holder, won first place in the "Let's Sew" division.

But, Karen couldn't be at the Fair to accept her silver tray award, because she was confined to bed at her home with rheumatic fever.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Carter, Jeffersonville Rd. Karen will be in bed for approximately eight weeks. She first became ill Tuesday.

Karen is a member of the Wilson Country Sisters Club. The advisors are Mrs. Frank Dill and Mrs. Richard Rankin.

Fire Department Makes Two Runs

The Fire Department answered two calls Wednesday, both to cars.

At 3:55 p. m. a pumper went to 620 E. Paint St. where an overheated car owned by Frank Motisan was smoking. The report said there was no fire or loss.

At 6:24 p. m. the pumper went to 912 Briar Ave. where there was a short in the wiring of a car owned by Dick Southworth. The short was stopped when wires under the hood were disconnected.

Judge John P. Case is presiding over the trial.
